SUBJECT No. 452.

Sales, etc., in civil courts to be conducted by the Revenue Department.

Mr. B. Ramanna, Krishnarājpete taluk

Summary of Representation.—It is prayed that sales and delivery of the possession of properties ordered by civil courts be henceforth carried out in the revenue department on behalf of the civil courts, as by this arrangement not only the real value of properties will be realised, but would tend to minimise fraud and future litigation.

SUBJECT No. 453.

Stamped receipts for properties purchased in civil court auction.

Mr. Gangappa, Nagamangala taluk,

Summary of Representation.—Stamped receipts are being taken from parties when making over immovable properties purchased in civil court auction sales. This is an unnecessary loss to the parties as sale certificates are obtained in proper stamps. It is desirable that such receipts should be ordered to be obtained on unstamped papers.

SUBJECT No. 454.

Definition of "agricultural produce."

Mr. U. S. Shiva Rao, Chikmagalur municipality.

Summary of Representation.—A definition of "agricultural produce" may be inserted in the Civil Procedure Code as special provisions are made in it for its attachment, sale, exemption from attachment, etc.

SUBJECT No. 455.

Late attendance on New Moon days.

Mr Rajagopaliengar, Chikballapur taluk.

Summary of Representation.—The present practice of late attendance on New Moon days may be extended to civil and criminal courts as the people resorting thereto are mostly Hindus.

SUBJECT No. 456.

Supply of iron safes to civil courts.

Mr. S. Sitaramiah, Shimoga taluk.

Summary of Representation.—Valuable documents and accounts are often produced in civil courts according to the provisions of the Civil Procedure Code and are kept without proper safeguards in ordinary wooden boxes. No arrangements exist for the proper watch of the court buildings during nights and on holidays. It is therefore prayed that steps may be taken for the supply of an iron safe to each court for the preservation of valuable documents and accounts produced by the parties and for a proper watch of the buildings during nights and on holidays.

SUBJECT No. 457.

Rules of Practice.

Mr. H. Narasinga Rao, Bar Association, Mysore.

Summary of Representation.—All the Rules of Practice issued by the Chief Court from time to time may be collectively printed and published annually and sold to the public.

SUBJECT No. 458.

Digest of Chief Court Reports.

Mr. H. Narasinga Rao, Bar Association, Mysore.

Summary of Representation.—Great inconvenience is felt by the Bar and Judiciary for want of a Digest of the Mysore Law Reports, and Mysore Chief Court Reports. Arrangements may be made for the publication of the said Digest at the earliest opportunity.

SUBJECT No. 459.

Sub-Registrars to be subordinate to Amildars.

Mr. Amble Anniah Pandit, Mysore City Municipal Council.

Summary of Representation.—It is prayed that taluk Sub-Registrars may be made subordinate to taluk Amildars just as taluk Sheristadars, so that they may attend office regularly and attend to registration work and thus minimise various difficulties.
